Caverion among top 3 facility management brands in Germany

Caverion was awarded as one of the three strongest facility management brands in Germany by the European Real Estate Brand Institute (REB). In addition, Caverion received the KPI Growth Award in the category "personal brand experience". Caverion reached the top 3 in Germany for the first time.

The European Real Estate Brand Institute, the leading benchmarking platform for corporate brands, evaluated more than 1,600 European corporate brands and gave awards in 38 categories. The brands are evaluated as part of the Real estate brand value study, one of the biggest empirical brand value studies in the real estate industry.

"The award is a recognition for the entire company, above all for our employees, who represent the Caverion brand in their daily work among customers and partners. Caverion is a young brand, which makes us even more proud of what we have achieved so far," says Holger Winkelsträter, Head of Marketing and Communications at Caverion Germany.
